

The deceiver

The deceiver

Misleads another to dishonestly gain a benefit for themselves or others.

For example

A director lies about their organisation's credentials to qualify for government funding.