

The organised

The organised

Fraudsters who work together to dishonestly gain a benefit for themselves or others.

For example

A group of people use stolen identities to submit false applications for government funding.